

Zion's Hill

Ukulele Tab

Words and music by James Allen Crutchfield, 1923

The image displays a piece of music titled "Zion's Hill" in G major, 4/4 time. It consists of five systems of musical notation, each with a vocal line and a ukulele tablature line. The tablature uses numbers 0-5 for frets and includes chord diagrams (G, C, D7) above the staff. The lyrics are: "There waits for me a glad to-mor-row, Where gates of pearl swing open wide, And when I've passed this vale of sor-row, I'll dwell up-on the oth-er side. Some day be-yond the reach of mor-tal ken, Some day, God on-ly knows just where and when, The wheels of mor-tal life shall all stand still, And I shall go to dwell on Zi-on's hill." The piece concludes with a double bar line.

G C G

There waits for me a glad to-mor-row, Where gates of pearl swing open wide,

C G D7 G

And when I've passed this vale of sor-row, I'll dwell up-on the oth-er side.

C G

Some day be-yond the reach of mor-tal ken, Some day, God

D7 G

on-ly knows just where and when, The wheels of mor-tal life shall

C G D7 G

all stand still, And I shall go to dwell on Zi-on's hill.
